PGA TOUR Champions and Mitsubishi Electric announce five-year partnership extension

Mitsubishi Electric Championship and Mitsubishi Electric Classic extended through 2025

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, Florida – PGA TOUR Champions and Mitsubishi Electric US, Inc., announced a five-year partnership extension at the Tour’s annual awards dinner last night at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. The extension encompasses two tournaments – the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and the Mitsubishi Electric Classic – and the Official Marketing Partner designation with the PGA TOUR.

“Mitsubishi Electric has been a tremendous partner for the PGA TOUR and PGA TOUR Champions since 2007, and we are excited to announce this extension as we continue to build on that strong foundation,” said PGA TOUR Champions President Miller Brady. “The Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and the Mitsubishi Electric Classic are two of the premier stops on our annual schedule, and it’s a thrill to know these partnerships will continue through 2025.”

Mitsubishi Electric has served as the title sponsor of the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai since 2009, and as title sponsor of the Mitsubishi Electric Classic since 2016. The company’s Official Marketing Partnership with the PGA TOUR – inclusive of the Official Large Outdoor Video Display Provider, Official HVAC Products and Official Elevators and Escalators – began in 2007.

“The relationship between the PGA TOUR and Mitsubishi Electric is built upon years of success and trust. It is with great excitement that we announce this expanded sponsorship with an organization that is committed to charitable causes as well as its sponsors,” said Kent Hora, president and CEO, Mitsubishi Electric US, Inc.

The Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai has been held at the Hualalai Golf Course on Ka’upulehu-Kona, Hawaii, since 1997, serving as the Tour’s season-opening event since 1984. The limited-field tournament features winners of PGA TOUR Champions major championships in the last five years; the last five Charles Schwab Cup Champions; winners of PGA TOUR

Champions co-sponsored events in the past two years; eligible members of the World Golf Hall of Fame; and a number of select sponsor exemptions.

Opening-round play begins on Thursday, January 16, where World Golf Hall of Fame member Ernie Els will make his anticipated PGA TOUR Champions debut.

The Mitsubishi Electric Classic, which has been contested at TPC Sugarloaf near Atlanta since 2013, returns to the 2020 schedule the week of April 13-19. Past champions include World Golf Hall of Fame member Bernhard Langer (2013), Spain's Miguel Ángel Jiménez (2014) and Scott McCarron (2019), who used the victory as a springboard to win his first Charles Schwab Cup last season.

ABOUT PGA TOUR CHAMPIONS

PGA TOUR Champions is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older, including 33 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame. The Tour's mission is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back and generate significant charitable and economic impact in tournament communities. In 2020, the PGA TOUR Champions schedule includes 27 tournaments across the United States, Morocco, Japan, England and Canada, with purses totaling nearly $59 million. The Charles Schwab Cup, which includes the Regular Season and the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs, is used to determine the season-long champion. All events are televised in the United States, with most receiving complete coverage on Golf Channel, the exclusive cable-television partner of PGA TOUR Champions. Internationally, telecasts air in excess of 170 countries and territories, reaching more than 340 million potential households, and distributed in 15+ markets via GOLFTV.
