About Us

Elwood High Performance Motors designs and manufactures rugged stepper and servo motors for harsh and/or specialty environments. Servicing the unique needs of the machine tool, automotive, packaging, food preparation, and various other industry sectors for the past 45 years has taught us a few things about building motors that survive extreme operating conditions.

e-F@ctory Solutions Provided

Brushless Servo Motors, stepper motors, for harsh environments that require rugged design, construction, and performance in excess of standard industrial products. Whether your needs involve extreme temperatures, high pressure jets of water, sanitation regulation, caustic chemicals, or explosive atmospheres, let Elwood High Performance Motors solve your next extreme motor challenge.
